

Press Release

Munich / Hamburg, 18.11.2025 - The German IP and patent litigation boutique PENTARC with head-office in Munich is pleased to announce the opening of its new office in Hamburg, located at the prestigious Neuer Wall. With this expansion, PENTARC strengthens its presence in Northern Germany, one of the most important UPC venues and a well-known IP-hotspot, and enhances its ability to serve clients across the region in complex IP and patent litigation matters.

The Hamburg office will be led by Salary Partner Tobias Baus, with Dr. Thomas Pattloch and Dr. Jan Phillip Rektorschek, both Partners at PENTARC, supporting the opening and development of the firm's second office by spending part of their time in Hamburg. Working hand-in-hand with the Munich head office, the team combines extensive experience in high-stakes patent disputes, cross-border enforcement, and strategic IP advice.

“Our new Hamburg office allows us to be even closer to our clients and partners in Northern Germany while continuing to provide the specialized and personal service PENTARC’s team is known for,” said Dr. Thomas Pattloch. “Neuer Wall provides an ideal location in the heart of Hamburg.”
