

The sincere sun rises over the world in the morning

And warms the earth with a clear ray.

And I walk around the world in a vyshyvanka.

I am Ukrainian! And I am proud of it.

We have been embroidering amulets for a long time.

Such a tradition has taken root among the people.

It is ancient, eternal and very glorious.

It has survived in culture to this day.

Neither centuries nor fashion can overcome it...

It is in the human heart and soul.

There is a lot of love, dreams, and hopes in it

And you are in no hurry to forget the tradition.

N. Krasotkina

Vyshyvanka Day, a day in the Ukrainian family, in the circle of like-minded people and people who support Ukraine with all their hearts

Link to original news in Facebook – Click here!