

SCHOCH EDELSTAHL

Quick guide to the Schoch Edelstahl webshop

Our webshop offers you convenient access to our range of standard and norm parts, around the clock. This quick guide provides you with a quick overview of the most important functions: from registration to order confirmation.

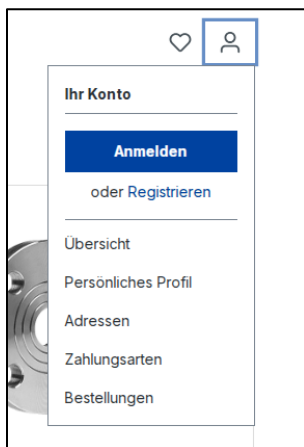

1. Registration

The web shop is exclusively accessible to existing business customers. If you are already a customer, you can easily register:

Click on the person icon in the top right corner and select “Sign up.”

Now enter your customer number and your company's postal code. After clicking on “Check,” your data will be automatically transferred.

Then add your personal details (name, email address) and set a password. Click on “Continue” to complete the registration process..

4. Product catalog

You will find our entire product range clearly presented in the product catalog.

The products are listed in table form in the bottom menu bar. Here you can immediately see:

- the current price
- stock availability
- and you can add products to your shopping cart by clicking on the shopping cart icon.

If necessary, a note will appear indicating whether you need a 3.1 certificate for the product.

You can adjust the quantities later in the shopping cart sidebar.
